'ROMEO AND JULIET'

Romeo & Juliet is the timeless romantic story against which all love stories are judged. The suddenness of the first flames of reciprocated love are held dearly by all who have either experienced the phenomenon or those that are awaiting that joyful moment.

In bringing Shakespeare back into the Jubilee Hall, I wanted our audience to relish the confident acting of our young and talented cast who I have challenged to master some of the most beautiful lines ever written in the English language. The process has, inevitably, been complicated, time-consuming and exhausting but all involved have made me extremely proud to be able to work with such vibrant, creative individuals who have become a real company. I trust that they will all cherish these performances for the rest of their lives, I know I shall.

SPECIAL THANKS

Inevitably, there are lots of people who have contributed their time, expertise and support to this production including;

Sadie Oliver for choreographing Uptown Funk.

Ashleigh Edwards for putting the dance onto our tricky stage.

To Mrs. Wightman & Molly for our floor cloth and balcony decoration.

To Alex Thomas, Molly Stevens, Hermione Thorpe, Hugo Cole, Marcos Wang and Emily Scott for the flats and mask designs.

Mr. Tizzard for using all his technical know-how to record the sound track

As ever, the fabulous maintenance team, led by Neil Austin, for building our set and having a 'can-do' attitude to all my requests for support.

Davinia at 'Day-Dream Designs' for our great costumes.

Extra special thanks;

Tom Rushton in Year 11 who used his drone, DSLR and mobile phone to capture the opening video sequence. A great job, very well done!

The Friends of Stover for the new state of the art LED lighting and control desk, purchased with money kindly raised from the Stover Ball.

The parents and guardians of our fantastic cast and crew for their support and encouragement.
